Prior Posts.. Multiplicity of opinions. I for one am most worried about the potential consequences of it, not what may or may not happen. In fact, there are other simple models that result in similar predictions to the standard model. I am especially worried about the "missing mass" in the universe. That is what all the cosmological data shows and all of the cosmology models are built on. But if the standard model is modified, it will only be modified to agree with those data. If the changes are not obvious, we will not know if we've been tricked by the data. Posted: 1 day ago. thermal physics by garg bansal and ghosh pdf download cool videos. It says..
