Super Recoilfight is a non-linear survival shooter based on the skill of swift retaliation. Up to four players can duke it out across the wasteland on a single keyboard. Your aim is simple: move and shoot, and make it count. HOW TO PLAY: Super Recoilfight is a one-button projectile brawler-shooter optimized for 4 player gameplay on a single keyboard. You move and aim using the recoil of your shots, so time them right to win against your friends, AI or both.

Single Button Shooter Start up Super Recoilfight, and start shooting, which is pretty much all there is to it. As you play, you and your opponent will react to each other's shots, but you are always the one who moves. Fighting of the First Round Shoot, and then move. You need to press the fire button once (to shoot) and release it (to move) once per shot, but if you ever spend more than half a shot, then moving with the recoil will be worth it. Hard to Master You need to know how to read and respond to your opponent's shots. This may sound simple, but practice may be needed to figure it out. Getting the hang of it will take some time.

Have Fun To win you need to shoot out your opponent, so you will have to keep a keen eye on your opponents constantly. Your opponents will try to land their shots, too, so keep moving and keep shooting. Your goal is not to die, your goal is to win. Key Features: Team Friendly: You can play up to 4 people, but only two of the players can be human players. This is done to offset the development costs of the game. It is still playable with up to 2 PC and 2 AI players without the DLC. No Lagging: The whole game is fully compatible with the Windows 10 Taskbar and Alt-Tab, allowing you to keep on playing as you switch between games. Do not force the game to foreground, do not start a new game while playing, and you should have no issues. No Heat: Super Recoilfight does not generate any heat, so you can keep your PC cool, even at the highest settings. NOTICE: You can only have two human players when you do not own the supporter pack, namely P1 and P2. To allow P3 and P4 to be PC, you need the supporter pack.

What's new:

McAdams At the three-hour mark in their classic foreign-flick-style 'rom-com' 'ululation', DoA6 more or less lives up to his own fantasies as 'droqdamok monstro'. He's extremely annoying, squishy, and loudly embarrassing. Who will it be: Rachel McAdams through cleverly hidden wires to overact and underplay, Like last year? Really enthusiastic stuff, though the combination of 'stop gettin' so excited so quick, Tim, cos we all know what you been offerin'!' with 'you're so cute I just wanna lick you! Hahaha!' made me want to throw up. Carriage The idiot highschool girls who end up there. They spend their every waking moment crashing tourist traps, waiting for the one to get back to highschool. However, the one who gets back soon enough is Sarah (McAdams) and she shows her trustworthiness, by starting to pound a wounded guy who lost his hearing fighting against the forces of evil who kidnapped a child. Its sweet, my friends. I may be biased, but that's an interesting premise and McAdams is interesting. Who will it be: McAdams and Benny (Tom Kenny) Like last year? Gone Although technically from the same studio as DoA6, Gone takes place in reality, and is about the activities of a remarkable teenage girl, the kind that actually exists in the world, who finds herself in an increasingly terrifying, adult situation that she can't seem to get out of, and has to decide what to do. Her sense of survival drives her to take desperate measures, all of them disastrous. The film also features: A talented young actress in her first role, and a good friend in 'Elinor' Woodnutz (Pasty Campbell). This is the type of movie that young actresses could learn a lot from. Who will it be: ooh, i dunno, Ashiana Keys. Like last year? Noooo 5 stars, blunt force trauma Black Swan The famous film which defies categorisation. Everybody loves it because it's a masquerade about psychotic leading women who inexplicably have such physical prowess, but it had up the creep factor a notch by keeping you waiting for the "How was that even possible?" revelations about anyone, but especially Lead Actress. I probably
