Asher is a very emotional person, even with his pet you have to watch out for his extreme emotions. With Paunch, you'll be able to influence those emotions and get Asher to do whatever you want. Even if he is in extreme or hot emotions, he will obey you. Paunch's AI is fully adjustable so you can make him do the best of both worlds, follow orders without emotions, and not react to things. Paunch also comes with very flexible buttons that control his emotions.

What you have to do is trigger Paunch's buttons in order to make him do specific commands. ★ THE BEST PLAYER MODE ALONG WITH NEW CLOTH PATTERNS! We

so small contribution made surprise you guys even more than the Fata Morgana and Soul Reaver games! Recently

we have been integrating a lot in the system of Fata Morgana 2. We already have a more robust combat system than the original and have been experimenting with a new mechanics to make the action more lively. That's why today we would like to present you the first in a series of blogs about this new project that we are working on. It's called FataMorgana 2: The Pouch Expansion. The Pouch

Expansion is designed by Antony Kuper and is a campaign expansion for Fata Morgana. It is more than just an expansion and is a whole new game in itself. The idea of Fata Morgana 2: The Pouch is to see how the both sides of Morgana and Asher will fit in the same universe together. Let's see what happens when Morgana offers a cute animal to Asher. What's new in Summer Athletics:

Podcast “Ghost Land” Ghost Land Journal April 11, 2016 by Ghost Land Journal This is it. It’s the day we will at last cast our votes and declare this year’s presidential election the “winner” based entirely on the quality of his or her campaign promises. This is the day we hold the candidates accountable for their public statements to determine if they truly belong in the positions of power we elect them to occupy. This is the day we make them toe the line, when the smoke clears, and the glass of razzle-dazzle on their promises has finally come and gone.

Yes, the day after the ballots are counted. If this is a joke to you, congratulations. If the only reason you voted is because it is the right thing to do, I'm proud of you. So, if you are really voting this year, here is your checklist. What do you hope for in the Trump v. Clinton race? Number one, relief and freedom. Here is where I begin to get down on my knees. I hold the entire electoral process, voting included, in utter abject contempt. We the people elected and re-elected Barack Obama, and look what that has done for us, since 2008. He has been nothing but a god of tiny promise with no action. He pulled the prestige of America right back down into an avalanche of cynically cobbled together policy BS dreck that left us, the voters, high and dry. I'll get down on my knees, but the first thing I do is get up and kick my complicit colleagues to the fence. So, here's how I think: 1. I will vote for a third party candidate if: a. I have spent over 50% of my vote, active candidate, for each ballot to be counted. b. I have had the opportunity to vote for such a candidate but have chosen to remain seated and satisfied with the candidate I have already voted for. If the above be true, then I have exercised my right to cast a vote for a wide selection of lesser or greater potential candidates. I will vote yes to the lesser of two evils, or the lesser of some greater collection of evils. I am not trying to justify in any way my disillusionment with the disingenuous efforts of both the Clinton and Trump campaigns. I especially will not do so by dishing out a partisan vote
