A window sticker is an official form that a governmental agency requires you to place on the front of your vehicle to prove that you own your vehicle. In most cases a vehicle owner is required to display a sticker on their windshield at all times. How does it work? A window sticker is a government-issued sticker that is normally placed in the window of a vehicle. This sticker is required to be displayed anywhere outside of a vehicle. Generally the sticker is placed in the driver's side window. The laws regarding the size of the sticker are different for different states. In most cases, an official window sticker is required to be displayed in any driver's side window. When do I need to display it? If you are not required to display the window sticker
