The Enuma Elish was read and recited widely throughout Mesopotamia but was especially important at the New Year Festival in Babylon. During this festival the statue of Marduk would be taken from the temple and, amidst the revelers, was paraded through the streets of the city, out the gates, to vacation' in a small house built for this purpose.

The Enuma Elish, especially, it is thought, the praise from Tablet VII, would be sung or chanted during this procession. The verse is a digital download file and is not a printed or physical product. Despite its name, enûma elish is not a theogony but a cosmogony . The Enuma Elish does not describe the creation of the universe, but it records the creation of a particular universe - the Babylonian - and records the creation and setting up of that particular universe. Now, the basic motif of all gods, or pantheons, is that of a clash of gods. Babylon was just one of many small-scale pantheons on Mesopotamian plains, and it was not created by some generic God; it was created by Marduk, and the other gods of the area only joined in as necessary to set up the universe - the Babylonian.
