The Qur'an as the Word of God is the purest of the pure from any falsification as 'Abdullaah ibn 'Amr said in his letter (Salih, 1989, p.15) as long as it is complete and free from any error. Accordingly, the jurists made the effort to seek the original, the authentic meaning of the Qur'anic words as reflected in the Qur'an as it is. Thus, the word ahkam in the Qur'an has a specific meaning which the jurists seek to find out in the Qur'an. This is the second full-fledged application I have completed for Radial. With Radial 1.4, we entered the realm of four dimensional sound engineering. And with this Radial, we now enter the realm of multi-dimensional signal flow, signal generation, and parametric controls. We have lost a bit of control in the move from Radial 1.0 to Radial 1.4, but that is largely because we already had those features built into the pro version and they have since been released as free applications. As a result, this application remains quite simple. But like the rest of the Radial tools, it is far more useful and versatile than the original Radial with which it was created. There are two components in the concept of ownership and one is exclusively Islamic such as the following: The living thing is owned as it is a source of livelihood and for it to be eaten that is for its maintenance. To be able to hold something, its owner must be alive (Iqbal, 2013). The freedom in the right to dispose of the property and the right in the owner to appropriate property to third parties is also stipulated as one of the principles of Islamic ownership (Maqsood, 2001).
