The Tampa Bay Times reports a federal judge sentenced 61-year-old Pablo Samuel Santillan of Plantation in the kidnapping of an 18-year-old woman in 2016. A friend introduced the teen to Santillan, who offered to pay her $200 in return for sex. She went with him to his house, where he hit her and made her perform sex acts with his dog. He then moved her to his work truck and offered her $300 in exchange for sex with his co-workers, court records show.

Santillan used a similar plan to recruit an illegal immigrant woman for sex. He paid her $2,000 to bring a 17-year-old girl to his home in 2012. The two were arrested at his home and charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The woman has since been deported. Santillan's attorney said his client was using the female co-workers as prostitutes to pay for the sex acts. For the first time, the US Government is giving out millions of dollars to fund scientists, including researchers working on the coronavirus outbreak. As of this week, the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases has f988f36e3a
