Richard Houghton feels ready to take on the world again, with Lutterworth MP claiming success in protecting animals from commercial fishing. The former animal rights activist has kept up the pressure on the Government through numerous letters and meetings, calling for the ban on testing products on animals to be extended to agricultural products, which include meat and milk. After succeeding in getting the government to give the animals' interests a voice in the product regulation process, he now has bigger ambitions. With the 04aeff104c
